IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA ROCK HILL DIVISION

Travis Geery, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,) C.A. No.: 0:21-cv-02028-SAL Plaintiff,) vs.) JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND) STAY OF SCHEDULING ORDER) ORDER DEADLINES Davenport Auto Repair and Collision Center, LLC; Brittany Davenport, individually; Kenneth Davenport, individually)))) Defendants.

Pursuant to DSC Local Rule 16.00, Plaintiff Travis Geery, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, and Defendants Davenport Auto Repair and Collision Center, LLC; Brittany Davenport; and Kenneth Davenport, through their undersigned counsel hereby jointly request that the Court grant a 45-day extension of the current stay of the deadlines [Docket No. 14]. set forth in the Scheduling Order.

WHEREAS, the original 45-day stay was requested so that the parties could obtain documentation and information from third parties (specifically, AAA Carolinas) that they believed would facilitate resolution of this case without further Court involvement. The parties continue to believe that information from AAA Carolinas will be material, if not dispositive, to settlement.

WHEREAS, AAA Carolinas was personally served with a subpoena on October 11, 2021 (Exhibit A);

WHEREAS, AAA Carolinas did not timely respond to the subpoena, at which point Plaintiff's counsel contacted the individual who accepted service. This individual referred Plaintiff's counsel to another individual at AAA Carolinas, who did not respond to Plaintiff's counsel's November 8, 2021 email regarding the status of the subpoena response (Exhibit B);

WHEREAS, on November 8, 2021, Plaintiff's counsel received correspondence from AAA's Office of General Counsel, directing Plaintiff's counsel to serve the Registered Agent (Exhibit C);

WHEREAS, on November 11, 2021, AAA's Registered Agent was served with the subpoena via process server (Exhibit D);

WHEREAS, on November 19, 2021, AAA's Legal Counsel sent correspondence indicating that it was not the correct party to respond to the subpoena and directing Plaintiff's counsel to serve The Auto Club Group, Inc., through its registered agent in Ann Arbor, Michigan (Exhibit E);

WHEREAS, on November 23, 2021, Plaintiff's counsel, transmitted the subpoena to The Auto Club Group, Inc., as directed, for service by process server. The Auto Club Group, Inc. was served on December 3, 2021 (Exhibit F). The response to the subpoena is due December 10, 2021.

WHEREAS, the Parties believe a 45-day extension will provide sufficient time to receive a response from The Auto Club Group, Inc. (and accommodate any further delays) and allow for review of the responsive documents in the context of further settlement discussions.
